REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

The plaintiff, Dwight X. Jones, ("Plaintiff"), proceeding pro se, brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. This matter is before the court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2) DSC. Plaintiff is an inmate at the Trenton Correctional Institution in Trenton, South Carolina, and files this action in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Having reviewed the Complaint in accordance with applicable law, the court concludes that it should be summarily dismissed.

BACKGROUND

Plaintiff's Complaint reveals that this civil rights action arises out of his removal from a work release program. Plaintiff alleges that his removal from work release resulted from "SLANDER, DEFAMATION OF CHARACTER AND LIBEL." (Compl., ECF No. 1 at 3.) Plaintiff appears to challenge an unidentified report that he alleges contains a charge of incest that has resulted in his removal from the work release program. Plaintiff also alleges that he was tricked into pleading guilty and that the plea agreement was breached. In his prayer for relief, Plaintiff seeks removal from "that racist town" and a total of $110,000 in damages.

INITIAL REVIEW GENERALLY

Under established local procedure in this judicial district, a careful review has been made of the pro se complaint pursuant to the procedural provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915, 28 U.S.C. § 1915A, and the Prison Litigation Reform Act (“PLRA”), Pub. L. No. 104-134, 110 Stat. 1321 (1996). This review has been conducted in light of the following precedents: Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25 (1992); Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324-25 (1989); Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972); Nasim v. Warden, Md. House of Corr., 64 F.3d 951 (4th Cir. 1995) (en banc); Todd v. Baskerville, 712 F.2d 70 (4th Cir. 1983); Loe v. Armistead, 582 F.2d 1291 (4th Cir. 1978); and Gordon v. Leeke, 574 F.2d 1147, 1151 (4th Cir. 1978).

The Complaint has been filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, which permits an indigent litigant to commence an action in federal court without prepaying the administrative costs of proceeding with the lawsuit. To protect against possible abuses of this privilege, the statute allows a district court to dismiss the case upon a finding that the action “fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted,” “is frivolous or malicious,” or “seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief.”<sup>1</sup> 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). A finding of frivolousness can be made where the complaint “lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact.” Denton, 504 U.S. at 31. Hence, under § 1915(e)(2)(B), a claim based on a meritless legal theory may be dismissed sua sponte. Neitzke, 490 U.S. 319; Allison v. Kyle, 66 F.3d 71 (5th Cir. 1995).

This court is required to liberally construe pro se complaints. Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 94 (2007). Such pro se complaints are held to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys, id.; Gordon v. Leeke, 574 F.2d 1147, 1151 (4th Cir. 1978), and a federal district court is charged with liberally construing a complaint filed by a pro se litigant to allow the development of a potentially meritorious case. Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S. 5, 9 (1980); Cruz v. Beto, 405 U.S. 319 (1972). When a federal court is evaluating a pro se complaint, the plaintiff's allegations are assumed to be true. Erickson, 551 U.S. at 93 (citing Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555-56 (2007)).

Nonetheless, the requirement of liberal construction does not mean that the court can ignore a clear failure in the pleading to allege facts which set forth a claim cognizable in a federal district court. See Weller v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 901 F.2d 387 (4th Cir. 1990); see also Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 129 S. Ct. 1937, 1953 (2009) (outlining pleading requirements under Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for "all civil actions"). The mandated liberal construction afforded to pro se pleadings means that if the court can reasonably read the pleadings to state a valid claim on which the plaintiff could prevail, it should do so; however, a district court may not rewrite a complaint to include claims that were never presented, Barnett v. Hargett, 174 F.3d 1128 (10th Cir. 1999), construct the plaintiff's legal arguments for him, Small v. Endicott, 998 F.2d 411 (7th Cir. 1993), or "conjure up questions never squarely presented" to the court, Beaudett v. City of Hampton, 775 F.2d 1274, 1278 (4th Cir. 1985).

DISCUSSION

In this civil rights action, Plaintiff has alleged that there is an “incest” charge on his record, but that no warrant has ever been served on him. He also writes: “I’m not a pervert or pedophile.” However, Plaintiff has failed to allege that the named defendants are responsible for or personally involved in this charge. Further, the defendants cannot be liable simply because they are a supervisor of another who committed misconduct. See Iqbal, 129 S. Ct. at 1948 (“Because vicarious liability is inapplicable to . . . § 1983 suits, a plaintiff must plead that each Government-official defendant, through the official’s own individual actions, has violated the Constitution.”); Vinnedge v. Gibbs, 550 F.2d 926, 927-929 (4th Cir. 1977); see also Polk Cnty. v. Dodson, 454 U.S. 312, 325 (1981) (“Section 1983 will not support a claim based on a respondeat superior theory of liability.”) (citing Monell v. Dep’t of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978)). Although the court must liberally construe the pro se Complaint and the plaintiff is not required to plead facts sufficient to prove his case as an evidentiary matter in the Complaint, the Complaint “must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to ‘state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.’ ” Iqbal, 129 S. Ct. at 1949 (quoting Bell Atlantic Corp. V. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007)); see also Francis v. Giacomelli, 588 F.3d 186, 193 (4th Cir. 2009) (explaining that a plaintiff may proceed into the litigation process only when his complaint is justified by both law and fact). Because the plaintiff did not plead any factual allegations that state a plausible claim for relief against the defendants regarding an alleged incest charge, the Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Additionally, the plaintiff cannot under § 1983 obtain damages for defamation, such as slander or libel. An alleged act of defamation of character or injury to reputation is not actionable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Paul v. Davis, 424 U.S. 693, 697-710 & nn.3-4 (1976). Moreover, under longstanding South Carolina case law, contents of governmental records—such as judicial proceedings, case reports, published cases, investigative reports, or arrest records—do not give rise to liability for slander or libel. See Heyward v. Cuthbert, 15 S.C.L. (4 McCord) 354, 356-59 (1827); Padgett v. Sun News, 292 S.E.2d 30, 32-33 (1982). Finally, civil rights statutes, such as 42 U.S.C. § 1983, do not impose liability for violations of duties of care arising under a state's tort law. DeShaney v. Winnebago Cnty. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 489 U.S. 189, 200-03 (1989).

Plaintiff's claims relating to his guilty plea and the alleged breach of the plea agreement are subject to summary dismissal under the holding in Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477 (1994):

We hold that, in order to recover damages for allegedly unconstitutional conviction or imprisonment, or for other harm caused by actions whose unlawfulness would render a conviction or sentence invalid, a § 1983 plaintiff must prove that the conviction or sentence has been reversed on direct appeal, expunged by executive order, declared invalid by a state tribunal authorized to make such a determination, or called into question by a federal court's issuance of a writ of habeas corpus, 28 U.S.C. § 2254. A claim for damages bearing that relationship to a conviction or sentence that has not been so invalidated is not cognizable under § 1983. Thus, when a state prisoner seeks damages in a § 1983 suit, the district court must consider whether a judgment in favor of the plaintiff would necessarily imply the invalidity of his conviction or sentence; if it would, the complaint must be dismissed unless the plaintiff can demonstrate that the conviction or sentence has already been invalidated.

Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. at 486-87 (footnote omitted). Until Plaintiff's conviction is set aside, any civil rights action based on the plea agreement, guilty plea, and related matters will be barred because of the holding in Heck v. Humphrey.

The named defendants, who are not employees of the South Carolina Department of Corrections, are not responsible for Plaintiff's placement, custody level, and placement in the South Carolina Department of Corrections. Horton v. Marovich, 925 F. Supp. 540, 543 (N.D. Ill. 1996) ("Thus, a plaintiff suing a government official in his individual capacity and therefore seeking to hold the official personally liable must show that the official personally caused or played a role in causing the deprivation of a federal right."); Smith v. Beasley, C/A Nos. 0:07-1641-HFF-BM and 0:07-1642-HFF-BM, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 54010, 2007 WL 2156632, *2 (D.S.C., July 25, 2007) (adopting magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation, which cites Horton v. Marovich).

In any event, Plaintiff has no cognizable claim relating to his placement or custody level in the South Carolina Department of Corrections. McKune v. Lile, 536 U.S. 24, 26 (2002) (noting that the "decision where to house inmates is at the core of prison administrators' expertise"). South Carolina law confers no protected liberty interest upon inmates of the South Carolina Department of Corrections from being classified, or being placed in administrative segregation, in a particular prison, or in a particular section of a prison. See, e.g., Keeler v. Pea, 782 F. Supp. 42, 43-44 (D.S.C. 1992), citing Meachum v. Fano, 427 U.S. 215 (1976); see also Vice v. Harvey, 458 F. Supp. 1031, 1034 (D.S.C. 1978).

RECOMMENDATION

Accordingly, the court recommends that the Complaint in this matter be dismissed without prejudice and without service of process.
